

WHITE PASS DAY TRIP

Cancelled due to inadequate signups

Thurs-March 8, 2012

Join us on Thursday, March 8, and spend a day of skiing at THE NEW WHITE PASS. without having to make that long drive. White Pass is still a relaxed, friendly and uncrowded ski area, especially on a week day. But now it has a whole new mountain to ski, which doubles the skiable area. Paradise Basin has runs similar to Mt Morrisy at Sun Peaks. So, join us and checkout this new area, which has taken 30+ years to happen. White Pass also has 18 kilometers of cross-country trails for the skinny-ski enthusiasts.

All SKIBACS members and guests are welcome.

TRANSPORTATION

We have reserved a 47 passenger bus. The bus will depart from the Oxbow Recreation Center parking lot at 6:00AM. Please arrive 15 minutes before so we can depart promptly at 6:00. We want to give people a full day of skiing, so we can't afford to wait for late comers. We will return to the Oxbow lot at about 7:00 PM, depending on driving conditions. There will be lots of food and beverages provided on the bus both ways, so we will not make any meal stops.

TRIP INCLUDES

- Round trip bus transportation between Oxbow and White Pass *
- One day lift ticket
- Continental breakfast on the way to White Pass
- Sandwiches and snacks and beverages on the return trip

* Pick up at the Park n' Ride on I5 at SR 512 is possible if enough people are interested. Let us know.
